NO TROUBLE WITH LOVETT.

The Ex-Bridegroom Was Knocked All Over

The Senators yesterday put up the best game of the season and gave the Bostons one of the worst defeats they have received since the cham-pionship season opened. The home team hit the ball all over the let, and handsome Lovett was forced to retire at the end of the third inwas forced to retire at the end of the third inning, having been hit for a total of eighteen bases, and at the end of the game they had fifty-one to their credit.

The Beancaters also hit quite lively, but it was done after the home pitchers had eased up.
Mercer pitched for six limings, and because the game was apparently won Petry took his place, but he soon retired, teling his on the hand by a batted ball by McCartia, Sallivan took his place, and did not exert himself in the least.

There was a fair crowd of halles present, and the rooters on the bloachers were out in force, and they rooted loudly, having good cause.

balls, singles by Hassamer, Cartwright, and Abbey, a put out and Dugdale's double. In the second they made one on Ward's hit, his steal, and errors by Duffy and Ganzel.

Seven more were made in the third on a single by Seibach, doubles by Hessamer and Abbey, a triple by Ward, a base on balls, and Cartwright's home run hit to right center. This seitled Mr. Lovett.

STALEY COULDN'T STOP THE BITTING Staley went in the box in the fourth, but he failed to stop the hitting. Schooch opened with a two baser, Tepean following with a base or a two baser. Tenean following with a base on balls, and after Hadford sacrifted Mercer hit for two bases. Ward then went out, but Hassa-mer made a bene run, and was followed by Cartwright with a triple. In the fifth singles by Abbey, Mercer, and Ward, a put out, and a triple by Hadford put two mere to the credit of the Senstors. Errors by Tucker and Long, a home run drive by Abbey, and a single by Seibach netted four mere.

by Abbey, and a single by Scionca heater borders more.

Inssamer's double and Cartwright's single scored one in the seventh.

One run was scored in the eighth on Radford's triple and McCarthy's error.

In the ninth Junglale and Abbey singled and Rauford lined out a double. Then Lowe made an error and two runs crossed the plate.

HOW BOSTON'S BUNS WERE SCORED, Lowe, who had gone to first on balls in the first inning, was forced at second by Long's hit to Radford. Duffy hit for three bases and came Radford. Duty hit for three bases and came home on a put out at first.

Nash's three-bagger and Ganzel's out to Selbach in the second scored one run.

Another this was made in the third on Lowe's single, a put out, and Duffy's double.

Singles by Tusker, Barnon, and Nash and a put out in the sixth netted two runs.

Safe hits by Long, Duffy, and McCarthy, two stolen bases by the latter, a drop fly by Tebeau, and two stolen bases by Tusker resulted in four runs in the seventh.

Two more runs were made in the eighth on singles by Long, Buffy, BucCarthy, and Tucker.

TRAITOR WORTHY HIS NAME

Talent Put Their Money Down and It Didn't Come Back.

THE JUDGES HAD A CLOSE CALL

Syracuse Apparently Won the Final Race, but Elmstone Was Given the Decision, Much to the Indignation of the Backers of Miller's Horse-Manlove Rode Poorly.

Favorites had the best of it at the Island track yesterday, as Mattle Chun, Senator, and Honest Tom were all heavily played and succeeded in landing the money. Traitor was the dump of the day, the talent accepting 3 to 5 and 1 to 2 for their money, but, unlike the cat, it never came back, as the horse quit like a steer when Manove went to whip in the stretch. Traitor jus is soon as he felt the lash stopped and sta to kick, which little pleasantry lost him all chance of winning and permitted Some More to beat him out for the place.

chance of winning and permitted Some More to be at him out for the place.

The sensational fluish of the day was in the final event, when Syracuse and Elmstone drew away from their field 100 yards from home and fluished heads apart. Syracuse was apparently its front, and the man who runs on the numbers thought so, as he started to hoist Syracuse's number, but the judge's placed Elmstone first. A crowd gathered about the stand and protested against the decision, but without effect, except that one excited individual was ordered to be removed by President Ike Jones.

The first race had a very unsatisfactory look, as it seemed as if Mattic Chun, the winner, was the only horse trying. Manlove had the mount on Psyche, and after leading clear of his field to the middle of the stretch Mattie Chun got up, and then Manlove appeared as if no more was expected of him, as he rode a tery indifferent finish, and was content with second piace. There was no investigation of the race by the judges. Senator was favorite for the second race, and after indulging Red Elm with the lead for half the journey he shot withe front and won easily fron Lily M., a well-backed second choice. Honald won the third, Honest Tom the fourth, and Elmstone was given the fifth. Summaries:

Getaway Day at Latonia.

CINCINNATI, June 22 -To-day closed the Spring

neeting of the Latonia Jockey Club, Sum-

Sheepshead Bay to-day. Nearly every race resulted in a head finish, and not until the last jumps were several contests decided. Hugh Penny had a sharp tussle with Merry Monarch in the first and linally won by a short head, while Wernberg was two lengths away in the third place.

In the race for the Daisy stakes Anisette looked like a winner, but Harry Reed came very fast at the end and caught her at the post. Ferrier went off with the lead in the third race, and loogest obeyed orders, making every post a winning one. Arab and Captain T. chased him in, but could not catch him. The time for the mile, 1234-15, was within a second of the fastest on record for the track.

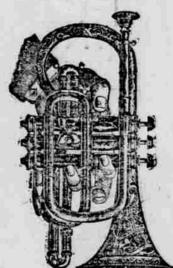

In the fourth race Stowaway let Picknicker get too far away from him, and then he could never beat him, finishing second. In the fifth race there was a splendid contest hetwen Belmar and the Bluffer, and The Binfer won by a short head on the wire.

The last race was on the turf, and Rubleon, the favorite, tried to make a runaway race of it, but had to give it up, and a close finish resulted between Will Foise, Ed Kearney, Watterson, and Lizue, and they finished in that order very close together.
